

Information sheet on the nostrification of foreign school-leaving qualifications (Schulabschlüsse) – vocational schools

IMPORTANT: due to the dual system in Austria, nostrification is subject to different responsibilities. Only school-leaving certificates (vocational school certificates) are nostrified at the Federal Ministry of Education. In order to enter the profession or to meet the classification according to the collective agreement, the training acquired abroad must be equivalent to the Austrian final apprenticeship examination. You can find more information online at <https://www.bmwet.gv.at/Themen/Lehre-und-Berufsausbildung/Gleichhaltung.html>.

The nostrification of foreign certificates is based on a comparison of schooling completed abroad and examinations taken abroad with Austrian curricula. If individual subjects or teaching content cannot be sufficiently demonstrated, the corresponding additional examinations must be taken.

An application for the nostrification of foreign certificates can only be submitted if the certificates are from foreign schools, the status of which corresponds to that of an Austrian public school or a school with public status, and it can be credibly demonstrated that the nostrification is necessary to obtain the intended authorisation or entitlement. If the state recognition of the foreign school in question is not clearly evident from the certificate, corresponding proof from the local school authority must be submitted.

Nostrification is only possible for certificates on which the graded subjects appear. School attendance certificates cannot be nostrified.

Legalisation regulations (status: 01 April 2025)

Full diplomatic legalisation: foreign documents from the education sector that are presented in Austria for official purposes generally require national legalisation by the respective state (i.e. education authority, foreign ministry) as well as higher-level certification of the legalisation by the competent Austrian representative authority in the issuing country (embassy, consulate, honorary consulate).

In the case of foreign languages, a translation prepared by an officially registered (sworn) translation agency in Austria is required. The translation must be officially attached to the original document. Translations made abroad must be notarised accordingly.

² Only required if the current name is not identical to the name on the diploma/certificate of completion.

Legalisation in the form of an apostille: full diplomatic legalisation of documents from the education sector is not required for countries signatory to the "Hague Legalisation Convention" (Convention Abolishing the Requirement of Legalisation for Foreign Public Documents) if these documents are provided with an apostille.

These are currently the following countries: Albania, Andorra, Antigua and Barbuda, Argentina, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Australia, Bahamas, Bahrain, Barbados, Belarus, Belize, Bolivia, Botswana, Brazil, Brunei Darussalam, Chile, China – including the special administrative regions of Macau and Hong Kong – except for Taiwan, Costa Rica, Denmark, Dominica, Dominican Republic³ Ecuador, El Salvador, Estonia, Eswatini, Fiji, Georgia, Grenada, Greece, Guatemala, Guyana, Honduras, India, Indonesia, Ireland, Iceland, Israel, Jamaica, Japan, Canada, Cape Verde, Kazakhstan, Colombia, Republic of Korea, Lesotho, Latvia, Liberia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malawi, Malta, Morocco, Marshall Islands, Mauritius, Mexico, Moldova, Monaco, Namibia, New Zealand, Nicaragua, Oman, Palau, Panama, Paraguay, Peru, Philippines, Portugal, Russian Federation, Samoa, San Marino, São Tomé and Príncipe, Saudi Arabia, Switzerland, Seychelles, Singapore, Spain, St. Kitts and Nevis, St. Lucia, St. Vincent and the Grenadines, South Africa, Suriname, Tonga, Trinidad and Tobago, Turkey, Ukraine, Uruguay, Vanuatu, Venezuela, United States, United Kingdom, Cyprus.

Exemption from any legalisation: Belgium, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Germany, Finland, France, Italy, Croatia, Liechtenstein, Montenegro, Netherlands, North Macedonia, Norway, Poland, Romania, Sweden, Serbia, Slovakia, Slovenia, Czech Republic, Hungary.
