

Information on the assessment of a compulsory school leaving certificate

The assessment is an expert opinion pursuant to Section 6 of the Austrian Recognition and Assessment Act (AuBG), Federal Law Gazette I no. 55/2016 as amended. This expert opinion is intended to make it easier to assess the value of school leaving certificates obtained abroad and to enable a basic assessment of their comparability with an Austrian school leaving certificate.

The assessment you receive will help you, especially when looking for a job. The assessment does not replace the recognition of qualifications for access to legally regulated professions or the nostrification of certificates (cf. www.berufsanerkennung.at).

The application is free of charge and can be submitted online at the following link: www.asbb.at

The online form must be completed correctly and the following documents must be uploaded in full. The maximum processing time is 12 weeks. Please note that any additional requests for missing documents will delay processing.

You will need the following documents for the application:

- 1. Confirmation of registration (proof of main residence in Austria)
- 2. End of year report (with subject index and list of grades) for the last school year completed in the original version with a translation and, if applicable, a diplomatic legalisation (see overleaf for translation guidelines and legalisation requirements)
- 3. Proof of identity (residence card, passport or refugee travel document, etc.)
- 4. Certificate of any name changes (for example, marriage certificate)

Legalisation regulations (status: 01 April 2025)

Full diplomatic legalisation: foreign documents from the education sector that are presented in Austria for official purposes generally require national legalisation by the respective state (i.e. education authority, foreign ministry) as well as higher-level certification of the legalisation by the competent Austrian representative authority in the issuing country (embassy, consulate, honorary consulate).

Legalisation in the form of an apostille: full diplomatic legalisation of documents from the education sector is not required for countries signatory to the "Hague Legalisation Convention" (Convention Abolishing the Requirement of Legalisation for Foreign Public Documents) if these documents are provided with an apostille.

These are currently the following countries: Albania, Andorra, Antigua and Barbuda, Argentina, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Australia, Bahamas, Bahrain, Barbados, Belarus, Belize, Bolivia, Botswana, Brazil, Brunei Darussalam, Chile, China - including the special administrative regions of Macau and Hong Kong – except for Taiwan, Costa Rica, Denmark, Dominica, Dominican Republic¹, Ecuador, El Salvador, Estonia, Eswatini, Fiji, Georgia, Grenada, Greece, Guatemala, Guyana, Honduras, India, Indonesia, Ireland, Iceland, Israel, Jamaica, Japan, Canada, Cape Verde, Kazakhstan, Colombia, Republic of Korea, Lesotho, Latvia, Liberia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malawi, Malta, Morocco, Marshall Islands, Mauritius, Mexico, Moldova, Monaco, Namibia, New Zealand, Nicaragua, Oman, Palau, Panama, Paraguay, Peru, Philippines, Portugal, Rwanda, Russian Federation, Samoa, San Marino, São Tomé and Príncipe, Saudi Arabia, Switzerland, Seychelles, Singapore, Spain, St. Kitts and Nevis, St. Lucia, St. Vincent and the Grenadines, South Africa, Suriname, Tonga, Trinidad and Tobago, Turkey, Ukraine, Uruguay, Vanuatu, Venezuela, United States, United Kingdom, Cyprus.

Exemption from any legalisation: Belgium, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Germany, Finland, France, Italy, Croatia, Liechtenstein, Montenegro, Netherlands, North Macedonia, Norway, Poland, Romania, Sweden, Serbia, Slovakia, Slovenia, Czech Republic, Hungary.

Translation guidelines

In the case of foreign languages, a translation prepared by an officially registered (sworn) translation agency (in Austria or an EU/EEA country) is required. The translation must be officially attached to the original document or a certified copy. You can find an overview of all sworn court interpreters on the website of the Austrian Association of Sworn and Court-Certified Interpreters – ÖVGD.

¹ Apostilles are only issued in electronic form. They can be verified in two ways (scanning the QR code or checking via the MIREX website <https://mirex.gob.do>).
